TECUMSEH'S TERM.

The Old Soldier is Anything but Happy.

Washington, 25.—General Sherman is a very unhappy man. A high army officer who knows him well declares he is not what he seems in his blue and hearty interviews. In the first place, he really hates to give up his position at the head of the army. It has been his sole occupation against melancholy or bitter domestic disappointment. He is the very life of certain Washington circles. He has always been the hero of every social festivity all over the country. It is true he is tired of Washington and that he is anxious to go to St. Louis. Soldier like, he puts a good face on the matter, but this bluntness does not conceal from his friends the deep seated chagrin that preys upon him. How disappointed the man was when his son joined the Jesuits. Mrs. Sherman is a woman who has the most personal ambition for the advancement of her church. She is one of its most active agents, and is in correspondence with the authorities at Rome. General Sherman made a struggle to remain in Washington after his retirement from the army, but Mrs. Sherman was determined to go to St. Louis where the Catholic church has a wide and powerful field in which she could have a most influential and leading position. Among the last days of his stay in Washington the General has been seen walking with his hat carelessly slouched over his eyes. The figure which has been so erect has within the last six months learned to stoop. Those who have approached him with the idea of his being gloomy have always been repelled with some rattling bit of brilliant chaff indicative of the highest spirits. When he is settled in St. Louis Mrs. Sherman believes that she will win him from the frivolities of his life and get him to find salvation in the Holy Catholic church. The General is growing old. In the dull region of St. Louis he may fall a prey to his wife's persistence and for the sake of peace go through the form of joining the church. Up to the present time Sherman has gone along without any religion, what ever. He said recently, "I do not think I need any priest crutch with which to hobble the rest of the way to the grave, but I can't tell what may happen in the future." He is now off on his last free play spell. It is to be hoped that he will have a good time this last round of his military posts.

The Noble Art.

New York, 26.—Jim Murray, of Providence, "knocked out" in two rounds, Robt. Turnbull of New York. The battle lasted but four minutes and twenty seconds. Science and Queensbury rules alike were ignored. Turnbull was knocked down four times in the first round, and stood up again, when both clinched. The referee tried to separate them. Shouts of "foul" were heard, and the crowd were all wrangling. Murray paid no attention to any one, but continued to pound Turnbull, until he fell bleeding, helpless and battered in Murray's corner. He again got on his legs and was fought down, when time was called, which should have been done ninety seconds sooner. Turnbull's nose was either split or broken, his eyes blackened and protruded. The second round was another brutal exhibition. Turnbull came to the scratch in a dazed condition. Murray went at him without delay and battered him until, beaten beyond recognition, he fell a senseless mass in the ring. Time was again called after a lapse of ten seconds, and as Turnbull could not respond, Murray was declared winner.

Cutting Rates.

Chicago, 26.—Last week there was a little speck of open war between the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroads, on round trip tickets to Denver to the encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, the rebate rate of the latter having been met by a straight rate by the former. Since that occurrence there have been no outside evidence of a further reduction, or any other made known to the public that either road were taking any steps to meet the cut. It is known, however, that the roads which have the ability to land passengers at Denver are not idle, but are engaged in a quiet effort to ascertain how many members of the Grand Army of the Republic expect to go to the encampment from every post within a radius of 200 miles of Chicago. The belief prevails on the outside that the rate of $29.80 from Chicago will be materially reduced before July 15, the time set for beginning the sale of tickets, and that a rate of $20 will possibly be made before the fight ends.

Shocking Casualty

Helen, M. T., 28.—The Independent's Missoula special says: News was brought here, to-day, by an eye witness, that on Saturday, the 22d, at 6.35 p.m., at Elk Creek, one mile and a half east of Haven, a gravel train, backing down, was run into by a wood train, instantly killing eighteen Chinamen and wounding from twenty to twenty-five others. The engineer of the gravel train was killed and the fireman seriously wounded. No one was hurt on the wood train. The gravel train was going at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour when the collision occurred. Both engines are complete wrecks. The dead were buried at Heron Spring, and the wounded cared for.

Imposing Ceremonies.

Burlington, Vt., 26.—The exercises of laying the corner stones of the new building for the University of Vermont and unveiling the statue of Lafayette took place to-day. Ten thousand people were present, including the governor and state officials and nearly all living ex-governors.
